The New York World,
Thrice-a-Week Edition.

Almost A Daily--At The Price Of A Weekly.

The most widely circulated "weekly" newspaper in America is the Thrice-a-Week, published by the New York World and Week edition of the New York World, and with the presidential campaign now at hand you cannot do without it. Here are some of the reasons why it is easily the leader in dollar a year journalism.

It is issued every other day and is to all purposes a daily.

Every week each subscriber receives 18 pages and often during the "busy" seasons 24 pages each week.

The price is only 81 per year.

It is virtually a daily at the price of a weekly.

Its news covers every known part of the world. No weekly newspaper could stand alone and furnish such service.

The Thrice-a-week World has at its disposal all the resources of the greatest newspaper in existence—the wonder of modern journalism—"America's Greatest Newspaper" per," as it has been justly termed—The New York World.

This fact will be of especial value in the present financial campaign coming on.

The best of current fiction is found in its columns.

These are only some of the reasons; there are others. Read it and see them all.

We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE GAZETTE together one year for $2.30.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50.

Due the Best They Could.

The managers of the Metropolitan Clothing and Shoe House have requested us to state that they greatly regret their inability to wait on all the customers who called at their store on Thursday of last week. They made an unsuccessful effort to secure more clerks—and under the circumstances did the best they could. Thursday was one of the "biggest" days this popular clothing house has ever had.

Believe in Fortune Tellers.

"Rev. Jacob Feichtner, of Palo Alto, the aged minister who was married at Bedford Wednesday to Mrs. Catherine Keedy, of this city, as stated Thursday, is now a firm believer in fortune tellers, as is also his wife," says the Cumberland Allegiance.

"Rev. Feichtner stated to our reporter that a short time ago he went to a fortune teller who told him that he would soon marry a woman whose name commenced with "K." At that time the minister was not engaged to be married. He also stated that his wife was visited by a fortune teller some time ago who told her that a "black curly headed man" would want to marry her, but as he paid no attention to that one, as there was an "old gray headed man coming" and for her to take him.

"Rev. Feichtner is estimated to be worth from seventy-five to one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Besides owning the village of Palo Alto and a large farm he owns a lot of property in and around Ellerslie and 2,900 acres of coal land in West Virginia.

Golden Anniversary.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Purry, near Woodbury, was the scene of a joyous reunion on Monday, October 2, being the golden anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Purry's marriage. It was celebrated by the gathering together of the children, grandchildren and a few neighbors. The day was most pleasantly spent. The older ones, grateful for the privilege of being with each other in the old home once more, were not hard to entertain. The small games amused themselves with various games. A number of selections of both vocal and instrumental music were rendered during the day. And the dinner—well, it was such a dinner that can be enjoyed much more easily than described. It is enough to say that the table was loaded with the supply of good things, and every one fully satisfied the cravings of the inner man.

Mr. and Mrs. Purry and John B. Purry were united in marriage, at Martinsburg on October 2, 1849, by Rev. J. H. Swartz. They began housekeeping within one and one-half miles of their present home and they have never lived more than two miles from where they now reside. Though the clouds have frequently gathered, during the fifty years these two have passed together, yet after the clouds the sunshine always seemed the brighter.

The couple—"There is no flock, however watched and tended, but one dead lamb is there; there is no vacant chair"—is applicable here. Of the eleven children who blessed this union, one has crossed over the dark river, Sarah Jane, who died June 24, 1874, aged 13 years. Six grandchildren died in infancy. The children present were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Purry, of near Roaring Spring; Mr. and Mrs. George McGraw, of New Enterprise; Charles Purry, of Christian Lehigh; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Purry, of Duncansville; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Purry, of Waterford; Mrs. Susie Terhune, of Hastings; Neb; Mr. and Mrs. L. Shoemaker, of Baker's Summit; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Purry, of Hastings; Neb; Samuel and Cynthia M., at home. E. W. Terhune and Mrs. Charles Purry were absent. The grandchildren present were Laurence, John, Will, Calvin, Alvey, Charles, Howard, Lester, Minnie, Elroy, Ransom, Edgar, Cyrus, Leeta, Harry, Lloyd, Avera, Mary, Fannie, George and Jessie Purry, Minnie, Alleta, Luther, Harvey, Grace, Charlie and Henry Lehigh, Almada, Roy and Ada Terhune, Lalla, D. S. and John McGraw and Marie and Arthur Shoemaker. George Lehigh, of near New Haven, Conn., and Herman Purry were absent. Mr. and Mrs. Purry received a number of useful and valuable presents.

Though the clouds have frequently gathered, during the fifty years these two have passed together, yet after the clouds the sunshine always seemed the brighter.

The couple—"There is no flock, however watched and tended, but one dead lamb is there; there is no vacant chair"—is applicable here. Of the eleven children who blessed this union, one has crossed over the dark river, Sarah Jane, who died June 24, 1874, aged 13 years. Six grandchildren died in infancy. The children present were Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Purry, of near Roaring Spring; Mr. and Mrs. George McGraw, of New Enterprise; Charles Purry, of Christian Lehigh; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Purry, of Duncansville; Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Purry, of Waterford; Mrs. Susie Terhune, of Hastings; Neb; Mr. and Mrs. L. Shoemaker, of Baker's Summit; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Purry, of Hastings; Neb; Samuel and Cynthia M., at home. E. W. Terhune and Mrs. Charles Purry were absent. The grandchildren present were Laurence, John, Will, Calvin, Alvey, Charles, Howard, Lester, Minnie, Elroy, Ransom, Edgar, Cyrus, Leeta, Harry, Lloyd, Avera, Mary, Fannie, George and Jessie Purry, Minnie, Alleta, Luther, Harvey, Grace, Charlie and Henry Lehigh, Almada, Roy and Ada Terhune, Lalla, D. S. and John McGraw and Marie and Arthur Shoemaker. George Lehigh, of near New Haven, Conn., and Herman Purry were absent. Mr. and Mrs. Purry received a number of useful and valuable presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Purry were united in marriage, at Martinsburg on October 2, 1849, by Rev. J. H. Swartz. They began housekeeping within one and one-half miles of their present home and they have never lived more than two miles from where they now reside. Though the clouds have frequently gathered, during the fifty years these two have passed together, yet after the clouds the sunshine always seemed the brighter.
